1. There are about 300 well-armed Communists of the Beroeang Merah in the village of Tempoeran, near Pasir Poetih. They landed there on 5 October 1948 from Rembang, Middle Java.
2. On 11 October 1948 they encountered the Dutch police about 10 kilometers south of Krawang, killing two Chinese and one Indonesian constable.
3. In nearby Patjing there is a concentration of about 150 Communists of the Boero Perdjongan who are cooperating with Bapak Matjem.
4. At Baboelak Tjibadak, five kilometers east of Tjibaroesa in rural Bogor, there is a concentration of about 150 Communist guerrillas led by a Japanese. They are well armed and wear the same type of khaki uniforms as troops of the Royal Netherlands Indonesian Army (RNIA). They were responsible for the recent attack on the rubber factory of the Michiels Arnold Company, where two Indonesian factory workers were murdered.
